

Staking Your Claim: The New Work from Home Frontier

Trusted advisors to keep you on the straight and narrow

You probably need a lawyer

- Make decisions on structure
  - DBA
  - Sole Proprietor
  - LLC
  - Corporation - talk to someone with experience
- Liability considerations and language
- Basic MOU or Agreement

Cash Basis Accounting

You probably need an accountant

Taxes may not be complicated, but you will have questions

- What might be a write-off
- Pre-paying taxes quarterly
- How your business, if not an employee, impacts other business entities you may have
- May help with setting your rates/prices

Retirement will happen

A financial planner may help layout an investment plan if you no longer have access through an employer

- Savings vs. investments
- Emergency funds
- Investing back into the business

Build a network

Helpful for marketing, personal sanity, advice, and professional development.

Think beyond a circle of advisors to mentors and confidants.

Consider anecdotal research search #remotework on LinkedIn. Networking on this platform are really growing and demonstrating they can lead to contracts.
